

From the Heart of Western Australia

Pilbara Pearl

PEARL is a sensuous Aboriginal woman with an extraordinary capacity for dreaming. She dives on our most magnificent reefs, without ever leaving the confines of her dusty Pilbara roadhouse.

EDDIE is a big-hearted surveyor's assistant who is always going somewhere, with his wheels firmly on the ground. He's madly in love with PEARL, but he has no understanding of her bizarre aquatic fantasies.

When EDDIE decides to hit the road for good, PEARL is faced with a decision. Does she love EDDIE enough to give up the dreaming? What good are fantastic underwater dream worlds when you're swimming in them alone?

EDDIE has a decision of his own to consider, as he drives towards a desert of dry horizons . . . but it will take a pearl. It always does. And PEARL is the only woman who can give it to him.

Pilbara Pearl

A little love story . . . a big country.
